

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a pretty good traveling companion. Better take a bottle with you when you go away from home. It may save you a long illness. And if you are not going away, keep it with you, always, in the house.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

is the best family medicine you can have. A thorough course of treatment with it makes good red blood, brings the old color back to the lips, fills out the cheeks, and gives the glow of perfect health.

Perhaps you suffer from the enfeebling effect of a prolonged spell of warm weather. If so, Ayer's Sarsaparilla will vitalize your blood and give you renewed force, vim, and energy.

As now made, Ayer's Sarsaparilla contains no alcohol.

There are many imitations Sarsaparillas.

Be sure you get "AYER'S."

SOCIAL EVENTS OF THE WEEK

BEST GOWNED OF CLUBWOMEN IN THE WORLD

Women who are known as the most fashionably gowned in the world are members of the Eclectic Club of New York. It is primarily a literary and musical organization and its membership includes nearly every woman of fashion in the metropolis. Its entertainments, always held at Delmonico's are more than mere amateur performances in the true acceptance of that term and cards are always in demand.

where Mr. Flohr goes to take a position of head luna of the Kahuku plantation. Up to this time he has been employed at Makaweli plantation, Kauai, as assistant head luna. In referring to his leaving the Garden Island on this week printed a flattering note concerning Mr. Flohr and a dinner given in his honor before he started for this place.

to take up some special piano work. Miss Eva Stevens leaves on June 12 for Chicago to spend the summer and she will return early in September and resume teaching.

Capt. E. Drew, of the bark R. P. Rithet, endeared himself to about sixty young people on Wednesday night by giving them a dance on board his vessel while she was lying at the Bishop wharf. The affair was a most delightful one and the novelty of it added much to the pleasure. It was given in honor of Miss Lucy Dimond, and was a graceful act of courtesy towards the young lady and her parents of whom the captain has been a long time friend.

The vessel had been made unusually spick and span for the occasion, and was decorated elaborately with flags, bunting and paper lanterns. An awning protected the poop deck and it was here that the dancing was done. Music was furnished by the Ovi Quintet Club and later in the evening refreshments were served. Among the young guests of Captain Drew were a number of the Oahu College boarding pupils, who were allowed to attend by Prof. Griffith.

The following is a list of the guests present: Mrs. W. W. Dimond, Mrs. J. T. Stack, Mrs. J. M. McChesney, Mrs. E. B. MacNeil, Mrs. M. L. Bettis, Mrs. E. B. MacNeil, Mrs. M. F. Baering, Mr. McDonald, Captain E. P. Drew, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gilman, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Farrington, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Berndt, Mrs. J. Drew, Mrs. P. Jones, Miss K. McIntyre, Miss M. McIntyre, The Misses Majorie Gilman, Myrtle Schumann, Lulu Weber, Margaret Forrest, Hazel Burr, Maud Jones, Gladys Graham, Catherine Magoon, Miriam Stack, Martha McChesney, Ruth McChesney, Hannah Voss, Hazel Ridley, Gladys Rycroft, Alice Smith, Messrs Edwin Gibb, G. Kothwell, Lani Magoon, Eatin Magoon, Allie Magoon, Randolph Hitchcock, Rexford Hitchcock, Willie Schumann, Atherton Gilman, L. Webster, Frederick Wichman, Kenneth Winter, Reynold McGrew, A. Bush, A. Wilcox, W. Ballentyne, C. Schaefer.

Mrs. Harry MacFarlane of Honolulu, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Henry Foster Dutton, in San Rafael, will be guest of honor at a house party to be given by Admiral and Mrs. Lyon at Mare Island next week—examiner.

The wedding of Miss Edna Foote and Mr. Porter Garnett will take place at the home of the bride near Callisto on Saturday June 1. Only members of the family and a few guests will be bidden to the ceremony. Mr. Garnett will bring his bride to San Francisco, where their home will be. Miss Foote is a charming girl, who has made many friends during occasional visits to San Francisco. Mr. Garnett is one of the well-known and talented members of the Bohemian Club. He has made a name for himself as critic and poet and is one of the intimate circle of clever California writers that number George Sterling, Jack London and others.—Chronicle.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Foster Dutton and their guest, Mrs. Harry MacFarlane (Mrs. Dutton's sister) are spending a few weeks in Southern California. They will return thence to visit San Rafael, where Mr. and Mrs. Dutton have been staying recently. Mrs. MacFarlane's friends along this coast are extending her enthusiastic greeting, and are already planning all for her pleasure that is possible under present hampered conditions.

As Miss Polly Dunn, one of the sweetest and most fascinating girls in San Francisco's social circles, Mrs. MacFarlane was widely beloved. In the years since her marriage that she has been a resident of the island city people have never ceased to miss her. She returns every once in a while for a few weeks' visit, and finds herself not only unforgetting, but always gladly welcome.—Chronicle.

Mrs. Rudolph Spreckels is looking very handsome these spring days and her friends are all congratulating her on her loss in weight, as she looks very young and slender in a smart tailor suit, with the skirt several inches from the pavement. The suit is made of a green and white check Panama cloth. Mrs. Spreckels is seen more often on foot these days than motoring as this is part of her method of gaining her slender figure, which is now the admiration of her friends.—Call.

Mrs. H. L. Ross was the hostess at a dainty little dinner given to half a dozen friends at the Hawaiian Hotel on Wednesday evening. The decorations of the table were unusually pretty.

Mrs. N. S. Sachs left on Monday on the Sierra for San Francisco. She will spend several months on the Coast before returning home.

Mrs. F. F. Bickerton and Mr. Spencer Bickerton have taken apartments at the Hawaiian Hotel.

Regret is felt here at the news that Major and Mrs. McIvor are to go shortly to Honolulu, where Major McIvor has been ordered to take station. For some time they have been at the Presidio of Monterey, and there Mrs. McIvor, who was formerly Miss Nellie Smedberg, the daughter of Colonel and Mrs. W. R. Smedberg, has been the hostess at many pleasant informal affairs.—The Call.

Mr. Isenberg entertained a number of the employees of Hackfeld's office force with a dinner on Wednesday evening.

Mr. Lloyd Conkling gave a stag dinner at the Seaside Hotel last Sunday. His guests were: Messrs. Guy Maydwell, Thomas Nase, Chester Irwin, C. L. Sprinks and John Fuller.

The Alameda dance at the Hawaiian Hotel last evening was a very pleasant affair.

ant affair. Besides quite a number of the guests of the Hotel who had but just arrived and were greatly delighted with the novelty of Hawaiian dancing and music, many of Honolulu's dancing set were present. The music was unusually good.

One of the prettiest affairs which has been enjoyed for sometime by the younger society set of Honolulu, was the dance given at the Seaside Hotel last evening by Hon. John Lucas for his daughter Miss Sarah, in honor of her charming visitor, Miss Pauline Algeltinger, of Oakland. Miss Algeltinger arrived here on the last trip of the Sierra, and will be here for some time as Miss Lucas's guest.

Those present at the affair were: Misses Margaret Catton, Renny Catton, Elsa Schaefer, Lilly Paty, Julia McStocker, Lydia McStocker, Colie Lucas McCorriston, Marion Greene, Minnie Schmidt, Eunice Pratt, Dagmar Sorenson, Irene Fisher, Alice Brown, Cordelia Gilman, Lorita Van Vliet, Jane Winnie, Hattie Lucas, Priscilla Sullivan, Eithel Wilcox, Misses, Mutch, Edna Craig, Nina Craig, Lorna Laukea, Ella Wight, Alice Green, Annabelle Low, Katherine Harrison, Muriel Campbell, Marjorie Freeb, Dorothy Freeth, Annie Dowsett, Makia Magoon, Cordie Carden, Eithel Bishop, Mabel Black, Edith Smith, Adele Morgan, Ada Rhodes, Marion Roth, Kathrine Smith, Lydia Wagner, Alice Cooper, Florence Hoffman, Lottie Cowan, Belle Ashley, Marguerite Creighton, Allen Simpson, Messrs. Allison Jordan, Stanley Ashford, Sutton, George Fuller, Arthur Mackintosh, Frederick Whickman, Von der Lief, George McCriston, Oscar McCriston, Dan McCriston, Cushman Carter, Richard Cooke, John Catton, Robert Catton, J. Winnie, Robert Thurston, Jack Desha, Wallace Cooper, Clarence Gilvin, Chris Jenkins, Ray Rietow, Charles Lucas, J. H. Howland, R. F. Howland, Will Chillingworth, Harry Hoffman, Kenneth Brown, George Ashley, Will Campbell, Will Kerr, Will Carden, Will Warren, J. D. Kennedy, S. Kennedy, B. Kennedy, Allan Lowrey, A. McDougal, Will Roth, Lewis Renton, A. Greene, Frank Wight, Harry Lucas, W. D. Barlow, Erling Hedemann.

Senator Charles F. Chillingworth entertained a few friends with a dinner at the Seaside Hotel on last Thursday evening. Those present were Acting Governor A. L. C. Atkinson, Lloyd Conkling, Leslie Scott and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. Chillingworth.

Mrs. Nevins gave a very pretty dinner at the Seaside on Wednesday evening. Her guests were Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Smith, Mr. William Williamson, Mr. Case, Miss Hardie and Paymaster and Mrs. B. Hayes Brooke.

Tantalus will be another rival summer place. Bungalows are being put in readiness for fortunate ones who happen to own them. Mrs. Arthur Wilder will soon occupy the Giffard place.

The incoming steamers will bring the college boys and girls. Miss Harriet Hatch, Miss Linda Schaefer, Miss Alice Cooke, Miss Edna Gunn, Miss Beatrice Castle and others.

The Swanzys are at Kualoa for over the 11th.

Saturday Mrs. C. L. Wight gave a pot luncheon to Mrs. E. C. Judd. Those invited to meet her were Mrs. Swanzey, Mrs. Blackman, Mrs. S. G. Wilder, Mrs. Arthur Wilder, Mrs. Gunn, Mrs. Margaret Walker, Miss Nina Adams. Bridge was played until late in the afternoon.

Walkiki holds her own these warm days as the trend in the afternoon is up the valley to the Country Club. Bathing and surfing proves a popular amusement. One finds the beach crowded every day after five o'clock—particularly at the Brown's raft.

Mr. Mackenzie Gordon, the noted tenor, who is spending some time in Honolulu, was host at a pleasant little dinner at the Seaside Hotel on last Sunday. His guests were Messrs. David Dowsett, R. C. A. Peterson, Fred Knight, "Billy" Hopkins and William Dixon.

Saturday evening R. W. Shingle gave one of his charming little dinners, after which the guests attended the Mackenzie Gordon concert. There was dancing later on at the Moana.

On Sunday last Mr. W. Williamson entertained about twenty-five of Honolulu's most exclusive set at a picnic at Walkiki. At the other end of the town Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Wilder gave a pot luncheon the same day. An impromptu affair, charming and deliciously served. The Wilders have a splendid swimming tank which all enjoyed before lunch.

Professor and Mrs. M. M. Scott gave a dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Irwin on Thursday evening. Others at dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, Mr. and Mrs. Swanzey, Mr. and Mrs. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. James Wilder.

The Irwins are being much entertained during their visit. For soon they will be themselves to Maunawili. On Wednesday the Richard Ivers will entertain them at bridge.

Tuesday's Tennis at P. C. C. club was in honor of Miss Irwin and Miss Hyde-Smith.

Mrs. J. C. Lorenzen gave a very pretty luncheon at her home on Lunalilo street, on Thursday. The table decorations were unusually lovely, being of pink and green. The center piece was a beautiful piece of hand painting. At each chair was a lei of malle and roses, while the places were marked with kahlilis as souvenirs. Later in the afternoon an interesting game of pedro was engaged in.

Those present were: Mrs. George Beckley, Mrs. A. Dreier, Mrs. Charles Chillingworth, Mrs. S. F. Chillingworth, Mrs. James Dougherty, Mrs. J. W. Lloyd, Mrs. K. R. G. Wallace, Mrs. W. M. Mutch, Mrs. George Farr, Mrs. Mary Murray, Mrs. H. D. Holt, Mrs. Alex Dowsett, Miss B. Meyer and Miss Mary Chillingworth.

Mrs. Francis Gay was the charming hostess at a luncheon given on Thursday at the Young Hotel. The table decorations were red carnations and ferns. Those present were: Miss Rose, of Kauai, the Misses Schaefer, Miss Lily Paty, Miss Ada Rhodes, Mrs. Ernest Ross, and Miss Cordie Walker.

Mrs. T. A. Lloyd entertained at a pot supper at her home in Kalihi on Sunday for the charming hostess of San Francisco, at whose home Miss Edna Lloyd is at present visiting.

There were 55 people present, and all thoroughly enjoyed the Hawaiian dishes and the music of Kaal's Quintette which was engaged to play for the occasion.

The girls have been much entertained during their visit here, and return home by the Alameda on Wednesday.

Mrs. Du Roi gave a pretty garden party on Wednesday afternoon in honor of the children of Mr. and Mrs. E. Flohr, who are guests in the city for a few days.

Miss Elsa Schaefer gave a children's party last Wednesday afternoon to the Focke children and other children of the Valley.

Miss Ladd gave a "pake" luncheon on Wednesday for Mrs. Albert Wilcox of Kauai. This form of entertainment is becoming most popular.

The closing of all of Mrs. Gunn's dancing classes for the season was marked by an elaborate children's dance given yesterday afternoon at the Seaside Hotel. About 125 little people were in attendance, and their graceful dancing and perfect deportment would have done credit to many a gathering of "grown-ups," and was an eloquent tribute to Mrs. Gunn's painstaking training. Mrs. Gunn is by no means satisfied with teaching the intricate steps which the little tots go through with such precision, but also conducts all her children's affairs with all formality in order that the children may have the benefit of practicing the approved social forms. For instance at this last dance each member of the class was sent a formal invitation with an "R. S. V. P." and was required to answer in proper form. Even the tiniest child sent an acceptance that would have been creditable to a much older person. Mrs. Gunn expects to open her classes with new dances in the fall.

The children who attended the last dance were: Aileen Dowsett, Phoebe Carter, Elizabeth Carter, Irene Ahrens, Eva Focke, Babs Focke, Helen Wilder, Kinan Wilder, Beggy Wilder, Elise Phillips, Margaret Phillips, Florence Ballou, Charlotte Ballou, Hazel Buckland, Vivien Buckland, Dorothy Smith, Helen Spalding, Virginia Frear, Margaret Restarick, Henrietta Schwartz, Carol Low, Laura Low, Margaret Van Vliet, Ruth Lindley Thelma Lindley, Lydia Wagner, Edean Winter, Sybil Winter, Gladys Kruger, Margaret Stevens, Harriet Richardson, Gladys Auerbach, Myrtle Schumann, Rosie Herbert, Helene Morgan, Ramona Morgan, Eleanor Bissell, Bessie Seybolt, Ruth Seybolt, Healan Lloyd, Louisa McCarthy, Pearl McCarthy, Virginia McCarthy, Margaret McCarthy, Margaret Campbell, Katie Singlehurst, Marjorie Chaplin, Francis Brown, James W. Campbell, Reuben T. Campbell, Francis Cooper, Reynold McGrew, O. Steven, Clarence McWayne, Everett Brown, Arthur Brown, Richard Perkins, Carter Galt, Jack Galt, Harvey Hitchcock, Dickson Hitchcock, Rosamond Swanzey, Eleanor Gartley, Ruth Gartley, Dottie Mutch, Lydia Mutch, Winona Wallace, Lellani Chillingworth, Alma Ferguson, Dorothy Hoops, Margery Hoops, Kaeha Ingham, Minnie Ingham, Helen Ingham, Abbie Lucas, Violet Lucas, India Wayson, Eleanor Wayson, Kathleen Rutman, Dorothea Wayson, Ruth McChesney, Martha McChesney, Lillian McChesney, Adelaide Pratt, Kulamau McWayne, Hazel Gear, Miriam Peterson, Helen Peterson, Dorothy Peterson, Winifred Brown, Marion

Paris, Winona Jones, Franklin Richardson, Jack Walker, Willie Morgan, Kenneth Wallace, Nellie Oederkirk, Alatau Wilder, Jimmie Wilder, Gustav Ballentyne, Maud Ballentyne, Henri Smith.

Mrs. Jammie Wilder's charming little dinners are always a treat. On Tuesday Judge and Mrs. Frear, Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Cooper and Mr. and Mrs. D. Howard Hitchcock were the honored guests.

Mrs. Emmet May has been a popular young matron since her return. Many luncheons and dinners being given in her honor. Honolulu always does her share for the kamaianas—and they in return appreciate island hospitality.

Mrs. D. Howard Hitchcock's luncheon for Mrs. Judd on Thursday was another pleasant gathering of old friends.

A dinner was given last Saturday evening at the Seaside hotel by the W. P. C. society, which was a very pleasant affair. The Kaal Quintet Orchestra assisted by Miss Kaal, vocalist, furnished the music during the meal. Those present were: Mrs. Spencer, the Misses Vogel, Harrison, Waltz, Van Coover, Brach and Messrs. Henderson, Otrumba, Carey, Batchelor, Holmes and Davison.

Queen Liliuokalani, accompanied by Mrs. Ada departed on the Mauna Loa for Lahaina yesterday. She goes on a pleasure trip and expects to return after she has recovered perfect health. During her absence Joseph K. Aea will look after her business interests.

Mrs. Guy Owens and Miss Ella Murray, who have been visiting friends on Maui, returned by the Claudine Thursday morning.

Mrs. George Gibb, wife of the manager of Olowalu plantation, is visiting in Honolulu.

Unusually pleasant was the dance at the Seaside Hotel last evening. It was attended by a large number of young people of the city who have come to look forward to these affairs with much expectancy. Manager Fred Church has been so importuned by members of the dancing set that he has made arrangements to hold a dance once a week, instead of on special occasions as the arrival of a transport or other large vessel. This news will be hailed with delight by the devotees of the graceful art.

Dr. Lucy C. Vrooman, of San Francisco, who is spending several weeks vacation in Honolulu, is much pleased with the place and is seriously considering the matter of locating here permanently and opening an office.

A correspondent from Paso Robles, California, writes that Mrs. H. K. MacFarlane, of Honolulu had been spending some time at the famous Hot Springs at that place. Mrs. MacFarlane will probably be visiting on the coast for several months.

Governor and Mrs. Carter and Mrs. H. Alexander Isenberg of Honolulu have gone to Del Monte for a week. Mrs. Isenberg, upon her return, expects to take possession of her new home in Berkeley.

Mrs. R. E. Flak entertained in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Clarence White, at a reception on Wednesday. Mrs. White is on a visit to Berkeley from her home in Honolulu.—Chronicle.

The T. W. Hobrons of Honolulu have decided to remain in Berkeley for a year. While on a recent visit to California Mr. Hobron was a guest of Jack London and his wife, and he was much interested in their preparations for the cruise they had planned on the Snark. Mr. Hobron is a retired commodore of the Hawaii Yacht Club.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1.—Miss Nance O'Neill was one of the guests at a reception given by Mrs. Edna Snell Poulson and the Misses Snell on Wednesday afternoon at Snell Seminary. It was at Snell that Miss O'Neill received her early education. Miss O'Neill's charming grace of manner and marked simplicity make her a most lovable woman. Many of the guests present were members of the alumnae of the seminary. The afternoon was in consequence more than of usual interest. Mrs. M. A. Britts was the complimentary guest of the occasion. Among those who assisted the Misses Snell and Mrs. Poulson were: Mrs. William Keith, Mrs. Joseph Le Conte, Mrs. E. J. Wickson, Mrs. J. C. Baird, Mrs. John S. Hayes, Mrs. John S. Wist, Mrs. W. B. Hathaway, Mrs. Jack C. Hayes, Mrs. Y. C. Bollion, Mrs. C. C. Plehn, Mrs. Slate, Mrs. W. B. Reising, Mrs. C. T. Palmer, Mrs. M. S. Robinson, Mrs. H. S. Kett, Mrs. Herbert Solger, Mrs. W. A. Ruthrauff, Mrs. C. H. Hubbard, Mrs. Cushing, Mrs. Curtis, Miss Bailey, Miss Rickard.

CHINESE GOT STUCK.

Six Chinese went outside the harbor aboard the S. S. Nippon Maru yesterday afternoon, forgetting to go ashore at the wharf, so taken up were they in saying farewell to a friend going home to the Orient. They were returned to shore in the pilot boat.
